This week we have been focusing on how to 'up-level' simple sentences by adding adjectives and adverbs to increase the richness of the sentence.

e.g. The dog barked

This sentence uses a determiner 'The', a noun 'dog' and a verb 'barked'.

By adding an adjective and an adverb we can really improve this sentence.

Rewrite these simple sentences including adjectives and adverbs.

1) The man danced.
2) The bear ate.
3) The woman shrieked.
4) The boy cried.
5) The witch cackled.
6) The monster roared.
7) The girl laughed.
8) The teacher asked.
9) The cat sneezed
10) The thief tiptoed.
